

PARA JUMBLE

- Directions: (Q. 1-5) : Re arrange the following sentences in the proper sequence to form a meaningful paragraph and then answer the questions given below.
- A) However, while reading, they would not know when to pause and when to emphasise.
- B) Since then, their use has been regularised the punctuation rules have been followed by all.
- C) In earlier days people learnt by reading out loud.
- D) But not every body used, the same punctuations for the same thing.
- E) To address this problem, various signs depicting various punctuations were introduced.
- F) Thus, former guidelines regarding punctuations were framed so that every one used them in similar way.

- A) Which of the following will be the last sentence after rearrangement?
- B) Which of the following will be the first sentence after rearrangement?
- C) Which of the following will be the second sentence after rearrangement?
- D) Which of the following will be the fourth sentence after rearrangement?
- E) Which of the following will be the third sentence after rearrangement?

- GOLDEN RULES

- Find out the opening sentence.
- Generally opening sentence will introduce an idea and can stand independently.
- There will be no pronoun, short form in the opening sentence.
- The opening sentence will not start the words like thus, since, however, but, later, in conclusion, in another word, therefore, besides etc.
- In general definite article 'The' not used to indicate anything in the first sentence.
- Find the reference words for continuous sentences.
- Logical reasoning and common sense approach.

- Directions: (Q. 1-5) : Re arrange the following sentences in the proper sequence to form a meaningful paragraph and then answer the questions given below.
- A) However, while reading, they would not know when to pause and when to emphasise.
- B) Since then, their use has been regularised the punctuation rules have been followed by all.
- C) In earlier days people learnt by reading out loud.
- D) But not every body used, the same punctuations for the same thing.
- E) To address this problem, various signs depicting various punctuations were introduced.
- F) Thus, former guidelines regarding punctuations were framed so that every one used them in similar way.

- ANSWERS

- C) In earlier days people learnt by reading out loud.
- A) However, while reading, they would not know when to pause and when to emphasise.
- E) To address this problem, various signs depicting various punctuations were introduced.
- D) But not every body used, the same punctuations for the same thing.
- F) Thus, former guidelines regarding punctuations were framed so that every one used them in similar way.
- B) Since then, their use has been regularised the punctuation rules have been followed by all.

- Directions: (Q. 6-10) : Re arrange the following sentences in the proper sequence to form a meaningful paragraph and then answer the questions given below.
- A) Some of these are tangible while others are not.
- B) The micro factors look at brand, building, product development, competition, pricing, decision making with organization etc.
- C) Another way to classify these factors is distinguish which of them are macro in nature and which of them are micro.
- D) The macro factors comprise government policies, state of the economy, changing demographics etc.
- E) The factor influencing forecasts include social, technological, economic, political, religious, ethnic, governmental and natural factors.

- A) Which of the following will be the last sentence after rearrangement?
- B) Which of the following will be the first sentence after rearrangement?
- C) Which of the following will be the second sentence after rearrangement?
- D) Which of the following will be the fourth sentence after rearrangement?
- E) Which of the following will be the third sentence after rearrangement?

- A) Some of these are tangible while others are not.
- B) The micro factors look at brand, building, product development, competition, pricing, decision making with organization etc.
- C) Another way to classify these factors is distinguish which of them are macro in nature and which of them are micro.
- D) The macro factors comprise government policies, state of the economy, changing demographics etc.
- E) The factor influencing forecasts include social, technological, economic, political, religious, ethnic, governmental and natural factors.

• ANSWERS

- E) The factor influencing forecasts include social, technological, economic, political, religious, ethnic, governmental and natural factors.
- A) Some of these are tangible while others are not.
- C) Another way to classify these factors is distinguish which of them are macro in nature and which of them are micro.
- D) The macro factors comprise government policies, state of the economy, changing demographics etc.
- B) The micro factors look at brand, building, product development, competition, pricing, decision making with organization etc.